

III Forks - Big Tex celebrates its first anniversary in Boca Raton.

February 15, 10:59 PM Boca Raton Restaurant Examiner Kenny Spahn

III Forks - Famed Texas steakhouse marks its first anniversary in Boca Raton. Among steak aficionados, III Forks is well regarded as one of the nation's premier steakhouses – especially in its home base of Texas (where they KNOW steaks!). Boca Raton was fortunate to welcome III Forks to town last March, in the chic '200 East' Building on Palmetto Park Road Uust east of Federal); and the stunning restaurant is ready to celebrate its first anniversary.

III Forks offers a contemporary evolution of the classic steakhouse, sizzling with style, an energized bar and lounge, and a sawy menu featuring USDA PRIME beef, seafood and local favorites. III Forks specializes in prime cuts of meats and much of its success is centered on its specifications for beef. In fact, only six processors in the entire country its meticulous standards meaning less than one-half of 1% of all U. S. beef makes the III Forks quality grade!.

III Forks mantra is to deliver each diner with "The perfect steak in the perfect dining room with the perfect wine." The gorgeous Boca restaurant offer a variety of ambiance styles and setting s, from the Captain's Room, with barrel vaulted ceilings and rich suede walls; Palm Room, with semi-private booths, rich woods and antique mirrors; and Legends Room with nostalgic photos honoring the worlds of sport and leisure; to the lively Piano Bar and outdoor the Patio Lounge for some relaxing al fresco dining and socializing.

III Forks Boca Raton is located at 200 East Palmetto Park Road (at and Mizner Boulevard) Boca Raton, FL 33432, and is open for dinner seven days a week. Complimentary valet parking is available, along with parking along the street.

For more information, phone: (561) 416- 2185 or visit www.IIIForks.com.

Also find III Forks in Palm Beach Gardens on PGA Blvd at Midtown; and the brand-new Hallandale Beach location, at the new Village of Gulfstream Park.